QUARANTINE PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF IOWA,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Whereas, Many of the prominent Farmers and Stock Growers of the State, more and more realizing the extreme danger of Pleuro-pneumonia, request that additional restrictions be placed upon the importation of Cattle from the State of Illinois:

Therefore, I, WILLIAM LARRABEE, Governor of the State of Iowa, do now forbid the importation into this State from Illinois of any Cattle, except in such special cases as may be approved by the Veterinary Surgeon of this State and upon compliance with such regulations as he may prescribe

And I again appeal to all the Citizens of the State, and especially to all State, County and Municipal Officers, to aid to the best of their abilities to ward off from our State the calamity of an invasion of that dreadful plague.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Iowa.

Done at Des Moines, this fifteenth day of February, A. D. 1887.

BY THE GOVERNOR:
FRANK D. JACKSON,
Secretary of State.

Wm. LARRABEE.

OFFICE OF

STATE VETERINARY SURGEON.

Des Moines, Iowa, February 15, 1887.

To Whom it may Concern:

In pursuance of the Governor's proclamation of this date, the following rules governing the introduction of cattle into this State from the State of Illinois are hereby promulgated.

1. The importation of the following kinds of cattle is absolutely prohibited:

Calves and all classes of cattle commonly known as stock—cattle coming from the State of Illinois.

Cattle kept within the last twelve months in Cook County, Illinois, or any of the counties adjoining it.

2. The importation of other cattle coming from the State of Illinois is prohibited, unless their owner, shipper or attendant furnish the following evidence that they are free from contagious disease:

Certificate from the Veterinary Surgeon of the State of Illinois that he finds the cattle to be shipped free from pleuro-pneumonia and other contagious diseases; that he has made a careful investigation, and is satisfied that said cattle have not, within the last twelve months preceding the date of shipment, been kept in Cook County, Illinois, in any of the counties adjoining Cook County, or any other locality in which pleuro-pneumonia exists; and that they have not in any way been subjected to the influence of any contagious disease.

Affidavit of two disinterested and reputable citizens and free-holders of the county from which the cattle were shipped, to the effect that they have personal knowledge that said cattle were owned by the shipper, and kept on his premises for at least twelve months immediately preceding the time of shipment, and that they were not exposed to pleuro-pneumonia during that period.

Affidavit of owner that the cattle are the identical animals examined by the State Veterinary Surgeon and described in his certificate; that the cattle have not been exposed to any contagious disease while in transit, and that the cars in which they are transported were thoroughly cleansed and disinfected before shipment.

3. All cattle coming into this State in violation of the provisions of the Governor's the foregoing rules and regulations are hereby ordered to be quarantined for ninety days at the expense of the owner.

J. A. CAMPBELL,
Acting State Veterinary Surgeon.

Approved February 17, 1887.

P. W. LEWELLEN, M. D.,
President Iowa State Board of Health.

J. F. KENNEDY, M. D.,
